

Still time to enter this year's award categories

It is time for all the borough's businesses to put their companies forward enter the Richmond Business Awards this year.

Various categories are now open to enter, including best business for innovation, people's choice award and best customer service.

Anne Newton, Richmond Chamber of Commerce chief executive, said: "If you have a local business with products and services that people could use, why not enter the Richmond Business Awards and publicise what your business does well?"

"Bear in mind that previous winners have benefitted from the massive publicity

Call out: Anne Newton surrounding their success at the awards.

"As such, this has been incredibly motivating for their team.

"Have a go and enter as many categories as you can and have a great evening at the awards ceremony."

The awards will be held on November 13, at Twickenham stadium.

Visit richmondbusinessawards.com/enter to enter your business.

Centre stage: Zac Goldsmith, Ryan Clifford, of Worldstores, Robert Seear, of Veolia, Tristan Ryan, of Worldstores, and ex-MP Vince Cable

We are delighted to support the Richmond Business Awards

Veolia works in close partnership with the London Borough of Richmond upon Thames to provide recycling and refuse collections to businesses and residents across the borough and we are proud to deliver these services.

We look for new technology to ensure we continue to meet and exceed our customers' needs, while also making sure that we protect and enhance the environment.

We would like to congratulate all winners and nominees in the Richmond Business Awards, and we wish everyone an enjoyable and successful event.

For more information about us, visit: www.veolia.co.uk

You can also follow us on Twitter at: twitter.com/veoliauk

Resourcing the world

Company 'proud' to support one of the categories

Backing the best in business once again

RTT reporter

newsdsk@rtt.co.uk

As one of the UK's leading resource management and environmental specialists, with a significant presence in Richmond, across the capital and beyond, Veolia is delighted to once again support the Richmond Business Awards with sponsorship of the best business category.

Veolia provides dedicated resource solutions for local authorities and commercial and industrial organisations in all sectors.

The organisation offers a range of recycling and waste management services that are individually tailored to suit customers' needs to help them save and preserve resources.

Veolia also manufactures new products and harnesses green energy from waste, waste water and wasted heat.

Sustainability and innovation are at the heart of Veolia's business statement and the company is committed to protecting the environment and improving the lives of the communities in which it operates.

This is done in a number of ways, including through the provision of funding and materials for local projects and volunteering staff time to help get them off the ground.

Veolia also uses local suppliers wherever possible, demonstrating a commitment to playing an active role in the local economies the organisation operates in. In 2015 Veolia was awarded a Queen's Award for Enterprise in Sustainable Development and received a four-star rating in Business in the Community's 2015 Corporate Responsibility Index.

A spokesman from the company said: "The best business category of the Richmond Business Awards covers innovation and environmental awareness.

"It's a great fit with our business and that's why we are proud to be a sponsor.

"We are looking forward to the award ceremony and to having the chance to meet some of the businesses driving the Richmond economy and making it an exciting place to live and work."

To find more about Veolia visit veolia.co.uk.

Richmond Business Awards gala dinner takes place on Friday, November 13. For details visit richmondbusinessawards.com

Richmond
BUSINESS AWARDS 2015

Richmond & Twickenham
TIMES

www.richmondbusinessawards.com

HAYS Recruiting experts worldwide

NPL National Physical Laboratory

Richmond upon Thames College

minesoft global patent solutions

Morrison's SOLICITORS

BUTTERWORTH

