

Here's Looking at You!

To view photos from your community visit www.ReporterNewspapers.net. To submit your photos email photos@reporternewspapers.net

Lovett learns

Left, The Lovett School's marine biology class, comprised of juniors and seniors, traveled to the Florida Keys, studying coral reefs, mangrove habitats and Florida Bay sea grasses. Senior Laura Jackson swims alongside a hawksbill turtle. Right, middle schooler Sarah Followill, front, helps plant a garden with Jeremiah Allen, right, in New Orleans, during one of the school's Spring Break service trips.

SPECIAL PHOTOS

DEAN CHELLIAN PHOTOGRAPHY

'Starstruck'

Sarah Smith Elementary School was surprised by a visit from new APS Superintendent Dr. Meria Jose Carstarphen, who attended the school's fundraiser on March 28, along with from left, Nancy Meister, Board of Education, Matt Westmoreland, Board of Education, Dr. Ken Proctor, Sarah Smith principal, Dr. Meria Jose Carstarphen, Dr. Freda Hamilton, Sarah Smith assistant principal, Courtney English, Board of Education, Caesar Mitchell, City Council President and Cynthia Briscoe Brown, City Council.

It's a raceway!

The third annual Andee's Army 5K sprinted off from Riverwood International Charter School in Sandy Springs on March 22. The event raises money for those families of children receiving medical treatment for brain and neurological injuries. Above, the crowd gets going. Left, participants Kevin and Sheri Hart. Below, from left, Mary Harris Morgan, Austin Willingham, Andee Poulos (for whom the race is named), Connor Dolan and Matt Gates.

SPECIAL PHOTOS

Globe trotters

Georgia Perimeter College-Dunwoody recently hosted its annual Culture Festival, giving students, faculty and staff a chance to sample international cuisine and enjoy a fashion parade. Right, Theresa Yang, left, shows Yichen Eli how to do Chinese knotting at the China table.

LEITA COWART

