Show why your firm is the business

BLUEBIRD Care, in Twickenham, provides care and support for older people and adults with physical disabilities – enabling them to live at home, within the community in comfort and safety.

This year the firm is playing a key role in the Richmond Business Awards, sponsoring the Best Professional Practice category.

The Richmond & Twickenham Times sat down with Bluebird Care to find out what makes the Richmond Business Awards and the Richmond Chamber of Commerce so special.

What does it mean to be a part of the Chamber and Richmond Business Awards? As a local company we are delighted to be part of the awards – promoting excellence of service to the community that we live in. What is special about the business community in Richmond borough – Teddington? The market in Richmond demands a high quality of service.

The business community here understands this and, with the support of the chamber of commerce, is constantly striving to improve and innovate. Why did you sponsor the Best Professional Practice? We're passionate about providing high quality, value for money services. We believe that the ability to provide these services is dependent upon excellence in professional practice. We want to support and encourage other businesses within the borough with these aims. The gala evenings are always a success.

Last year's winners of this Professional category were IT experts Tech Division followed by Morrisons Solicitors and the Maris Practice as Highly Commended and Commended, respectively. To enter go online on the Richmond Business Awards website and reply to a small number of simple questions. The independent judging panel will be looking for facts and case studies; so simply invest a little time, press that enter button, have the general public vote for you in the People's Choice category too. Perhaps you will be you standing with our MPs and enjoying the limelight on November 4.

A Richmond Chamber spokesman said: "You can book your tables and tickets before it is too late – it is the most important business date in the local calendar."
