Tea and book signing held for Amy Ephron, who wrote book for middle-schoolers

Mary and Mark Freitas, along with Nancy and Bill Rollnick, hosted an afternoon tea in their home honoring author Amy Ephron. The Feb. 11 event drew more than 75 guests, young and old. In addition to tea, sandwiches, pastries and lots of lawn rough-and-tumble for the kids, the afternoon included a book signing by the author of her new book, The Castle in the Mist. It is Ephron's first novel for the middle-school grades. The Freitases also arranged a special visit with Ephron at Rosarian Academy, where the author shared her novel and discussed the writing process with hundreds of students. Proceeds from sales of the book benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs of Palm Beach County. — sdonnelly@pbdailynews.com Twitter: @pbdnsociety

SOUTHWAYS

The "First Winter White House" is an iconic architectural gem, designed by important society architects, Hoppin & Koen of New York. This grand, landmarked home totalling 14,300 square feet (including guest house and garage) is set on 1.3 acres, 250 feet from the ocean in the center of town. This Beaux-Arts home is a one of a kind. A great floor plan with large, bright rooms of perfect proportions make this a very liveable house. Enjoy its high ceilings on both floors which cannot be built or duplicated today in most of Palm Beach (per current zoning and code). Subdivision of one of its three 100' x 187' lots is possible.
