

Rocking at the Cross Keys

live music MUSTANG Sally, All Shook Up and Crazy Little Thing Called Love are just a few of the tracks to be performed at a live music event taking place in Upwood.

Party in the Paddock is being held at the Cross Keys pub on Sunday, July 27.

It will feature the 2005-formed five-piece Upwood band, 10 O'Clock Curfew.

The band aims not only to recreate the sounds of classic artists including Ella Fitzgerald and the Rolling Stones but also more modern singers such as Amy Winehouse and Bryan Adams.

There will also be a bar and barbeque.

Landlady Jane Kirkby, said: "We have held hog roasts in the past but this will be the first time an event of this kind has taken place at the pub. If successful, we hope to expand it next year and maybe make it an annual event."

INFORMATION: Gates open at 5pm with music from 6pm to 10pm. Tickets cost £3 for adults and free for children and are available on the gate. To find out more, phone 01487 813384.
