Our websites will keep you bang up-to-date with details All info you need at click of button

LET us take you on a quick tour of some very useful parts of our website you might not be familiar with.

Easily accessible from the homepage of rttimes.co.uk or by clicking on the Local Info tab, we have live traffic and travel feeds to keep you on the move.

These will help you stay bang up-to-date with any problems on the roads or disruption on public transport.

If you've got kids you'll likely be interested in local schools, and our new Education channel is packed with essential information.

Online: What our websites have to offer readers

You can easily search and compare schools, colleges and sixth forms, view Ofsted reports and performance tables and also read our helpful guides.

If you're looking for things to do in the area, either for a day out or a fun evening, we have you covered on that too.

Our What's On section is full of suggestions for how you can enjoy your spare time, whether it's a night down the pub, taking in a show or getting out and about at the weekend. We also have details of what's showing at local cinemas and there are hundreds of listings for events taking place, including car boot sales, fairs, fireworks and much more – you can add your own event to this for free.

Last but by no means least, you can click on the E-newspaper section to sign up for receiving a digital edition of this newspaper delivered directly to your email inbox every week.

Once you're registered you can also access an online archive showing copies of the paper going back to 2007.
