

First Tuesday Breakfast Club spotlights education

Submitted to the Sierra Sun

Education is a vital component of the community and innovative academic opportunities continue to be at the forefront of Tahoe Truckee Unified School District, along with higher learning institutions like Sierra Nevada College.

With a variety of new programming for students of all ages, it is now easier to get involved and actively participate in their respective success. The biggest question for some is deciphering what organizations to support and how best to get involved.

The Sept. 4 edition of First Tuesday Breakfast Club in Tahoe City will feature the topics:

■ Tahoe Truckee Unified School District Superintendent Chief Learning Officer Dr. Rob Leri will provide an update on the school district's comprehensive programs in place to ensure all students are college and career ready by the time they graduate. He will also share highlights for the upcoming 2018-19 school year, including the facility upgrades that are currently underway at Lakeside schools.

■ Shannon Beets, executive vice president and provost of Sierra Nevada College will share about community driven service learning initiatives, continued education programs, and information about the upcoming chamber mixer on Thursday, Sept. 20, hosted by the college.

■ Laura Brown, executive director of Excellence in Education will provide information on academic programs funded by Excellence in Education and ways to get involved in their annual fundraising platforms.

■ Mindy Carbajal, chief executive officer of Boys and Girls Club, North Lake Tahoe will share about the variety of resources offered to students and families alike. Hear about ways to get involved, programming for the 2018-19 school year, and how this non-profit sustains community in North Lake Tahoe.

First Tuesday Breakfast Club is a community forum presented by the North Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce. Held at Granlibakken Tahoe on the first Tuesday of each month from 7-8:30 a.m. Tickets are $15, with a hot breakfast included.

'Fire Aid' benefit concert to hit Commons Beach

Submitted to the Sierra Sun

A special concert event is being planned in Tahoe City next week, with event proceeds to be donated to a nonprofit organization assisting those impacted by the Carr and Mendocino Complex fires.

On Sunday, Sept. 9 from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., local residents and visitors are invited to the free concert at Commons Beach in Tahoe City.

Similar to the popular summer Concerts at Commons Beach, the afternoon will feature music by one of Tahoe's original "house bands" Public Eye, with special guests including Ben Martin from the Tahoe Truckee School of Music, Michael Loomis and Brian (T.S.) Silverman.

Lindsay Romack will serve as the event's emcee, and beer and wine will be available for purchase. Contributions collected that day, as well as a portion of beer and wine sales will be donated to fire victims.

Tahoe's Public Eye will be among the live performers at the Sept. 9 "Fire Aid," a concert geared to raise funds for those impacted by the Northern California Carr and Mendocino Complex fires.

The show is being co-produced by local residents Robbie "Rene-gade" Polomsky and Judy Friedman, with support from the Tahoe City Public Utility District, Tahoe City Downtown Association, The Bridgetender, Tahoe Dave's, Blue Agave, Lagunitas Brewing Company and Barefoot Wine and Bubbly. In addition, all of the musicians and sound technicians will donate their time and talents.

"The smoke we've experienced in the Tahoe-Truckee region this summer as a result of the fires burning across the state has been a constant reminder of the incredible losses people have experienced," said Friedman. "There's a strong feeling in our community that we can and should do something to help. This is that something."

NEWS BRIEF

Saturday is a Free Fishing Day in California

The California Department of Fish and Wildlife is encouraging all Californians to give fishing a try for free on Saturday, Sept. 1.

Fish and Wildlife annually offers two Free Fishing Days, typically around the Fourth of July and Labor Day weekends. On these two designated days, people can fish without having to buy a sport fishing license. Free Fishing Days also provide an easy opportunity for licensed anglers to introduce non-angling friends and children to fishing and the outdoors.

All fishing regulations, such as bag and size limits, gear restrictions, report card requirements and fishing hours and stream closures, remain in effect. Every angler must have an appropriate report card if they are fishing for steelhead, sturgeon or spiny lobster anywhere in the state, or for salmon in the Smith and Klamath-Trinity river systems. All anglers should also check the rules and regulations at www.wildlife.ca.gov/ regulations for the waters they plan to fish because wildlife officers will be on duty to enforce them.

In addition, information on fish planting is available at <https://nrm.dfg.ca.gov/> fishplants and a fishing guide can be viewed at www.wildlife.ca.gov/fishing/guide.
