

JUNIOR NATIONALS WRAP UP

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY

Amidst a mixture of flurries, clouds and sunshine on the final day of the U16 Rocky Central Junior Championships hosted by Ski & Snowboard Club Vail, the boys and girls had a great day of slalom racing on Golden Peak. For the women, in the top row, first place went to Tegan Wold, of Ski & Snowboard Club Vail, middle, second place went to Cleo Braun, of Ski & Snowboard Club Vail, left, and third place went to Hannah Soria, of Steamboat Springs Winter Sports Club, right. In the bottom row, from right to left are Michaela Strizencova (fourth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail), Lauren Geary (fifth from Buck Hill), Caroline Jones and Gretchen Pavelich (tied for sixth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail), Taylor Brandt (eighth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail), Campbell Sullivan (ninth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail) and Ashley Winberg (10th from Team Duluth).

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY

In the top row, first place went to Burke Fancher, of Ski & Snowboard Club Vail, middle, second place went to Gus Leblanc, of Ski & Snowboard Club Vail, left, and third place went to Max Bervy, of Ski & Snowboard Club Vail, right. In the bottom row, from left are Eric Negomir (fourth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail), Zachary Dekko (fifth from Buck Hill), Kellen Kinsella (sixth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail), Isaiah Nelson (seventh from Buck Hill), Blake Bathum (eighth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail), Maxwell Timm (ninth from Ski & Snowboard Club Vail) and Andrew Thomas (10th from Great Lakes Ski Academy).

Devils rally to beat Glenwood

Eagle Valley notches big win

By Chris Freud
cfreud@vaildaily.com

GYPSUM — A comeback is big for any team.

It's even bigger for young team like Eagle Valley girls soccer.

The Devils roared back from a 2-1 second-half deficit on Thursday afternoon for a 3-2 victory over Glenwood Springs at John Ramunno Field in Gypsum.

"We had a few unlucky setbacks, but the girls still believed in what we were doing and trusted in it," Devils coach Maggie Sherman said. "They never stopped going, and to put it away is one of the best feelings."

The Devils' Jessie Adams struck twice in the final 40 minutes, including the game winner with 10 minutes to go. Freshman Karlina Feduschak scored for Eagle Valley (2-1) in the first half.

Sophomore Brennecke Gale was big for the Devils in net, and Ginny Osteen was clutch at center back, directing the defense, clearing the ball and starting it forward. (It shouldn't come as a shock that a coach who played for the Vail Mountain School's Bob Bandoni would put major stock in that position.)

And with that, the Devils bounced back nicely from a tough loss against Battle Mountain, another good sign.

Eagle Valley continues league play on Tuesday by bundling up and heading over to Summit County.

Sports Editor Chris Freud can be reached at 970-748-2934, cfreud@vaildaily.com and @cfreud.

VILAR PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

DIRECT from EUROPE

POLISH BALTIC
PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

SAT MAR
19 6:30 PM

TICKETS $68 adult/$10 student

Founded in 1945 on the heels of postwar Polish independence, the Polish Baltic Philharmonic is the largest music institution in northern Poland. Internationally renowned for his extraordinarily charismatic stage presence, Maestro Boguslaw Dawidow will conduct the orchestra in an exciting program including Beethoven's Symphony No. 5.

GET YOUR TICKETS TODAY!

970.845.TIXS
www.vilarpac.org

LOCATED BELOW THE ICE RINK IN BEAVER CREEK VILLAGE